- 1.2 The Buyer is intended to be only a consumer within the meaning of Section 419 of the Civil Code. These business conditions therefore do not apply to cases where the person who intends to purchase goods from the Seller is a legal person or a person who, when concluding a Purchase Contract, acts within the scope of his/her business activity or within the scope of his/her independent profession. The rights and obligations between the Seller and the Buyer who is not a consumer are governed by the Civil Code.
- 1.3 Provisions deviating from those specified in these business conditions may be agreed in writing in the Purchase Contract. The deviating provisions agreed in the Purchase Contract shall prevail over the provisions of these business conditions.
- 1.4 The provisions of these business conditions are an integral part of the Purchase Contract, which the Buyer confirms in the Web Interface by submitting the order. The Purchase Contract and the business conditions are drawn up in the Czech language. The Purchase Contract can be concluded in the Czech language. Legal relations not expressly regulated by these business conditions are governed by the relevant provisions of the Civil Code and related regulations.
- 1.5 The Seller may change or supplement the wording of the business conditions. The change shall take effect on the date of their publication on the Web Interface. This provision does not affect the rights and obligations acquired during the period of validity of the previous version of the business conditions. The version of the business conditions valid on the date of purchase shall always apply to the Buyer.

2. ORDER

- 2.1. The Buyer may order goods by filling in the electronic order form located on the Web Interface or by telephone at +420 777 944 120 (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Order"). The Web Interface contains also a list of goods offered for sale by the Seller, including the prices of the goods. The prices of the goods are stated in CZK, including value added tax and all related fees.
- 2.2. The offer for sale of the goods and the prices of the goods shall remain valid for as long as they are displayed on the Web Interface. This provision does not limit the Seller's ability to conclude a Purchase Contract on individually agreed terms. The decisive moment for determining the purchase price is the moment of sending the Order.
- 2.3. All presentation of the goods placed on the Seller's Web Interface is informative and the Seller is not obliged to conclude a Purchase Contract regarding these goods. The availability of the goods is subject to the Seller's current stock requirements. The provisions of Section 1732 (2) of the Civil Code shall not apply.
- 2.4. Before sending the Order to the Seller, the Buyer is allowed to check, change and correct the data entered by the Buyer in the Order. The Buyer shall confirm the Order made via the order form and send it to the Seller by clicking on the button "Send Order", "Submit" or another button of similar wording. Before the final dispatch of the Order to the Seller, the Buyer is obliged to carefully check all the data provided in the Order.

- 2.5. The Buyer is obliged to provide the Seller in the Order with all the data necessary for the Seller to process the Order in the following scope: name of the goods, number of pieces, contact details (name and surname, residence, e-mail, telephone, payment method). If the Buyer orders the goods by telephone, he/she will be asked to provide all the above information and the Order confirmation will be sent to the e-mail address provided.
- 2.6. The Buyer undertakes to provide true, accurate, up-to-date and complete information in the Order. The information provided in the Order shall be deemed correct and complete by the Seller. In the event of a change in such data, the Buyer is obliged to correct the data provided as soon as possible.
- 2.7. The Seller shall always be entitled, regardless of the nature of the goods required and their quantity, to require the Buyer to provide additional confirmation of the Order (in writing or by telephone) and to commence delivery of the goods only after additional confirmation is provided by the Buyer.
- 2.8. An Order sent by the Buyer via the order form on the Web Interface to the Seller, or made by telephone, is only a proposal for the conclusion of a Purchase Contract within the meaning of Section 1731 of the Civil Code.
- 2.9. The Purchase Contract is concluded only in the manner specified in Article 3.1 of these business conditions, not by the Buyer sending (placing) the Order.
- 2.10. The Seller, upon receipt of the Order, shall confirm receipt of the Order to the Buyer by an automatic reply via e-mail to the Buyer's e-mail address specified in the Order. This confirmation only confirms that the Seller has received the Order, but this confirmation does not constitute the conclusion of the Purchase Contract.
- 2.11. By submitting (placing) the Order, the Buyer confirms that he/she has read the Seller's business conditions and the Privacy Policy (both documents are available in their valid and effective version at any time on the Web Interface) and that he/she agrees with them, that he/she is fully competent and that, in particular with regard to his/her age, he/she is entitled to order the goods in question and to enter into the Purchase Contract. The Buyer undertakes to read these business conditions in detail and in the event of disagreement with them is not entitled to order and purchase the goods.
- 2.12. The Buyer acknowledges and agrees that the Seller may ask the Buyer in connection with the Buyer's Order to prove that the Buyer meets the condition under Section 12(1)(a) of Act No. 379/2005 Coll., as amended, i.e. that the Buyer is not a person under 18 years of age (e.g. by submitting a copy or image of an identity card). The Buyer is obliged to respond to the Seller's request within a reasonable period of time determined by the Seller. Failure of the Buyer to demonstrate this condition at the request of the Seller shall be grounds for cancellation of the order and withdrawal from the purchase contract by the Seller.

3. PURCHASE CONTRACT

- 3.1. The Purchase Contract is concluded only at the moment of acceptance of the Order by the Seller in accordance with Section 1745 of the Civil Code. This acceptance is the delivery of the acceptance of the Order, which is sent to the Buyer by electronic mail to the electronic address specified by the Buyer in the Order and applies only to those goods that the Seller confirms in the acceptance. Acceptance does not mean an automatically generated confirmation of receipt of the Buyer's Order. The Seller may also accept the Order in another express manner which makes it clear and unquestionable that it accepts the Buyer's offer. Acceptance of an offer with an amendment or deviation pursuant to Section 1740(3) of the Civil Code is hereby excluded.
- 3.2. Under the Purchase Contract, the Seller undertakes to deliver the ordered goods to the Buyer and the Buyer undertakes to pay the Seller the purchase price and to accept the goods.
- 3.3. No contractual obligations shall arise between the Buyer and the Seller until the conclusion of the Purchase Contract in the manner set out in Article 3.1 above.

- 3.4. The Buyer agrees to the use of remote means of communication in concluding the Purchase Contract. Costs incurred by the Buyer when using remote means of communication in connection with the conclusion of the Purchase Contract (e.g. costs of internet connection, costs of telephone calls) shall be borne by the Buyer, and these costs shall not differ from the basic rate.
- 3.5. The concluded Purchase Contract, including the business conditions, is archived by the Seller in electronic form and is not publicly accessible.
- 3.6. The Buyer acknowledges that the Seller is not obliged to conclude the Purchase Contract, in particular with persons who have previously materially breached the Purchase Contract (including the business conditions).

4. PAYMENT CONDITIONS

- 4.1. The Buyer may pay the purchase price of the goods to the Seller in any of the following ways:
 - (a) in cash at the Seller's premises;
 - (b) by credit card at the Seller's premises;
 - (c) by wire transfer.
- 4.2. If the Buyer has not chosen to pay by wire transfer, the purchase price is payable upon handover of the goods; the Seller is not obliged to hand over the goods to the Buyer if the purchase price is not paid at the same time.
- 4.3. In the case of payment by wire transfer before delivery of the goods, the Buyer is obliged to pay the purchase price of the goods in advance, within 5 days from the date of confirmation of the Order by the Seller. The Seller is entitled to withdraw from the Purchase Contract if the purchase price is not credited to his account within this period. Unless otherwise agreed, the Buyer is entitled to take delivery of the goods only after full payment of the price. In the case of non-cash payment by bank transfer, the Buyer is obliged to pay the purchase price of the goods stating at the same time also the variable symbol of the payment, which is communicated to him during the process of concluding the Purchase Contract. The Buyer's obligation to pay the purchase price is fulfilled in this case at the moment of crediting the relevant amount to the Seller's account. Confirmation of payment of the purchase price within the meaning of the previous sentence shall be sent by the Seller to the Buyer at the Buyer's e-mail address specified in the Order.
- 4.4. The promotional prices are valid only until stocks are exhausted or for a certain period of time. Any discounts on the price of the goods granted by the Seller to the Buyer cannot be combined unless expressly stated otherwise.
- 4.5. If it is customary in the commercial relationship or if it is provided for by generally binding legal regulations, the Seller shall issue a tax document - invoice to the Buyer regarding payments made on the basis of the Purchase Contract. The Seller shall issue the tax document - invoice to the Buyer after payment of the price of the goods and send it in electronic form to the Buyer's electronic address. The Seller is a payer of value added tax.

5. DELIVERY OF GOODS

- 5.1. The Seller offers as the only method of delivery personal collection of the goods. The ordered goods can be picked up by appointment at the Seller's premises at Horní Chobolice 44, 411 45 Liběšice. In exceptional cases, a different method of delivery and payment for transport can be agreed individually.
- 5.2. Delivery of the goods means the moment of delivery of the goods to the Buyer in accordance with the Purchase Contract. Unjustified refusal of the goods by the Buyer does not constitute a failure of the Seller to deliver the goods or a withdrawal from the Purchase Contract by the Buyer. In such a case, the Seller may charge the Buyer additional costs and withdraw from the Purchase Contract.

- 5.3. The Buyer shall not acquire title to the goods until the purchase price of the goods has been paid in full. The risk of damage to the goods passes to the Buyer upon the Buyer's receipt of the goods. In the event that the Buyer is in default of acceptance/receipt of the goods, then at the beginning of such default.

6. WITHDRAWAL FROM THE PURCHASE CONTRACT

The Buyer acknowledges that, according to the provisions of Section 1837 of the Civil Code, among other things, it is not possible to withdraw from the contract for the supply of alcoholic beverages, which can only be delivered after a period of thirty days and the price of which depends on financial market fluctuations independent of the will of the entrepreneur, from a contract for the supply of perishable goods, as well as from a contract for the supply of goods which have been irretrievably mixed with other goods after delivery, from a contract for the supply of goods in sealed packaging which have been removed from the packaging by the Buyer and cannot be returned for hygienic reasons.
- 6.2. Unless it is a case referred to in Article 6.1 above or another case in which the Purchase Contract cannot be withdrawn from, the Buyer has the right to withdraw from the Purchase Contract in accordance with the provisions of Section 1829 (1) of the Civil Code within fourteen (14) days from the receipt of the goods, or from the receipt of the last delivery of the goods if the purchase contains several types of goods. Withdrawal from the purchase contract must be sent to the Seller within the period specified in the previous sentence. The Buyer may send the withdrawal from the Purchase Contract, among others, to the Seller's business address (Horní Chobolice 44, 411 45 Liběšice) or to the Seller's e-mail address info@geltschberg.com.
- 6.3. In the event of withdrawal from the Purchase Contract pursuant to Article 6.2 above, the Purchase Contract shall be cancelled from the outset. The goods must be returned by the Buyer to the Seller within fourteen (14) days from the delivery of the withdrawal from the Purchase Contract to the Seller, in person at the address Horní Chobolice 44, 411 45 Liběšice. If the Buyer withdraws from the Purchase Contract, the Buyer shall bear the costs associated with the return of the goods to the Seller.
- 6.4. In the event of withdrawal from the Purchase Contract pursuant to Article 6.2 above, the Seller shall return the funds received from the Buyer within fourteen (14) days of the Buyer's withdrawal from the Purchase Contract in the same manner as the Seller received them from the Buyer. The Seller shall also be entitled to return the performance provided by the Buyer already upon return of the goods by the Buyer or in another manner, provided that the Buyer agrees and no additional costs are incurred by the Buyer. If the Buyer withdraws from the Purchase Contract, the Seller is not obliged to return the received funds to the Buyer before the Buyer returns the goods to the Seller.
- 6.5. The Buyer acknowledges that if the goods returned by the Buyer are damaged, worn out or partially consumed, the Seller shall be entitled to compensation from the Buyer for the damage caused thereby. The Seller is entitled to unilaterally set off the claim for payment of the damage against the Buyer's claim for reimbursement of the purchase price.
- 6.6. In cases where the Buyer has the right to withdraw from the Purchase Contract in accordance with the provisions of Section 1829 (1) of the Civil Code, the Seller is also entitled to withdraw from the Purchase Contract at any time until the Buyer has taken over the goods. In this case, the Seller shall return the purchase price to the Buyer without undue delay, in cash to the account designated by the Buyer.
- 6.7. The Seller has the right to withdraw from the Purchase Contract in the following cases:
- (a) a technical error has resulted in a manifestly incorrect purchase price on the Web Interface;
 - (b) the goods cannot be delivered under the original conditions for objective or subjective reasons;
 - (c) the Buyer is not entitled to enter into the Purchase Contract;
 - (d) performance becomes objectively impossible or unlawful.
- 6.8. If a gift is given to the Buyer together with the goods, the gift contract between the Seller and the Buyer is concluded with the condition that if the Buyer withdraws from the Purchase Contract, the gift contract with respect to such gift shall cease to be effective and the Buyer shall be obliged to return the gift together with the goods to the Seller.

7. RIGHTS FROM DEFERCTIVE PERFORMANCE

- 7.1 The rights and obligations of the contracting parties with regard to the rights arising from defective performance are governed by the relevant generally binding legal regulations (in particular the provisions of Sections 1914 to 1925, Sections 2099 to 2117 and Sections 2161 to 2174 of the Civil Code and Act No. 634/1992 Coll., on Consumer Protection, as amended).
- 7.2 The Seller shall be liable to the Buyer that the goods are free from defects upon receipt. In particular, the Seller shall be liable to the Buyer that at the time the Buyer accepted the goods:
- (a) the goods have the characteristics agreed between the parties and, in the absence of an agreement, have the characteristics described by the Seller or the manufacturer or expected by the Buyer in view of the nature of the goods and on the basis of the advertising carried out by them,
 - (b) the goods are fit for the purpose for which the Seller states they are to be used or for which goods of that kind are usually used,
 - (c) the goods correspond in quality or workmanship to the agreed sample or specimen if the quality or workmanship was determined by reference to the agreed sample or specimen,
 - (d) the goods are in the appropriate quantity, measure or weight; and
 - (e) the goods comply with the requirements of the legislation.
- 7.3 The Buyer shall not be entitled to any rights under defective performance if the defect was present in the goods at the time of acceptance and a discount on the purchase price is agreed for such defect, and also in cases where such defects have been caused by unprofessional intervention, use contrary to the normal intended use of the goods, improper storage, normal wear and tear or damage not caused by the Seller.
- 7.4 The Buyer is not entitled to the rights from defective performance if he/she knew or should have known about the defect before taking over the goods, or if the Buyer caused the defect himself/herself, especially by acting in violation of the Purchase Contract, these business conditions or the Seller's instructions regarding the goods.
- 7.5 If the defect manifests itself within six months of receipt, the goods shall be deemed to have been defective upon receipt. The Buyer shall be obliged to exercise the rights arising from the defective performance without undue delay after he/she has discovered the defect or should have discovered the defect with due diligence within a maximum period of 24 (twenty-four) months from receipt of the goods; however, if the packaging of the goods indicates an expiry date, this period shall be reduced only to the date indicated on the packaging of the goods.
- 7.6 Upon personal receipt of the goods from the Seller, the Buyer shall inspect the goods received, their entirety, completeness and undamaged packaging. Any discrepancies shall be reported to the Seller upon personal receipt of the goods at the Seller's premises. This arrangement is without prejudice to the statutory time limit for the exercise of rights arising from defective performance. Additional claims of imperfectness, incompleteness or external damage do not deprive the Buyer of the right to claim the item, but give the Seller the opportunity to prove that there is no conflict with the Purchase Contract.
- 7.7 Liability rights for defects in the goods shall be asserted with the Seller. The Buyer can specifically exercise the rights from defective performance in person at Horní Chobolice 44, 411 45 Liběšice, by phone at +420 777 944 120 or by e-mail at info@geltschberg.com. The Buyer shall personally deliver or send the claimed goods to the Seller, while the Seller recommends packing the goods in suitable packaging so as not to damage or destroy them. In order to facilitate and speed up the processing of the complaint, it is advisable to enclose a proof of purchase of the goods or a tax document - an invoice, if issued, or another document proving the purchase of the goods, together with a description of the defect and a proposal for the method of resolving the complaint (the choice of the right of defective performance).
- 7.8 The Seller is obliged to issue the Buyer with a written confirmation of when the Buyer exercised the right, what is the content of the claim and what method of claim settlement the Buyer requires (in the case of a claim in person immediately in paper form, in other cases the confirmation is sent by e-mail; as well as a confirmation of the date and method of claim settlement, or a written justification for the rejection of the claim.

- 7.9 The moment of exercising the right of defective performance shall be deemed to be the moment when the Seller was notified by the Buyer of the occurrence of the defect and exercised the right of defective performance.
- 7.10 If the goods do not have the proper characteristics according to the Purchase Contract, the Buyer may also demand the delivery of a new item without defects, unless this is unreasonable due to the nature of the defect, but if the defect concerns only a part of the item, the Buyer may only demand the replacement of the part; if this is not possible, he may withdraw from the Purchase Contract. However, if this is disproportionate in view of the nature of the defect, in particular if the defect can be removed without undue delay, the Buyer shall be entitled to have the defect removed free of charge. The Buyer is also entitled to the delivery of a new item or the replacement of a part in the event of a removable defect if the item cannot be used properly due to the recurrence of the defect after repair or due to a greater number of defects. In this case, the Buyer also has the right to withdraw from the purchase contract. If the Buyer does not withdraw from the purchase contract or does not exercise the right to have a new item delivered without defects, to have a part of the item replaced or to have the item repaired, the Buyer may demand a reasonable discount. The Buyer is also entitled to a reasonable discount if the Seller cannot deliver a new item without defects, replace a part of the item or repair the item, as well as if the Seller fails to remedy the defect within a reasonable time or if remedying the defect would cause the Buyer considerable difficulties.
- 7.11. If the defective performance is a material breach of the Purchase Contract, the Buyer is entitled in particular to have the defect removed by delivery of new goods without defect or to withdraw from the purchase contract. However, the Buyer may not withdraw from the Purchase Contract or demand delivery of new goods if he cannot return the goods in the condition in which he received them (e.g. because he/she has already consumed the goods).
- 7.12. The Seller decides on the complaint immediately, in complex cases within 3 (three) working days. This time limit does not include the time reasonable according to the type of product required for a professional assessment of the defect. The complaint, including the removal of the defect, shall be settled without undue delay, at the latest within 30 (thirty) days from the date of the complaint, unless the Seller and the Buyer agree on a longer period.
- 7.13. However, the Buyer must exercise the right to reimbursement of such costs within 1 (one) month after the expiry of the period within which the rights arising from the defective performance must be exercised.
- 7.14. The Seller does not provide any guarantee for quality beyond the statutory warranty period.
